ORTANT INFORMATION

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an Insurer, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the Insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the Insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the Insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance. Your duty however does not require disclosure of matter:
- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the Insurer

- that is of common knowledge
- that your Insurer knows, or in the ordinary course of business, ought to know
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the Insurer

NON DISCLOSURE

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the Insurer may be entitled to reduce his liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the Insurer may also have the option of voiding the contract from its beginning.

INADEQUATE SPACE TO ANSWER

If there is inadequate space to answer our General Information or other questions or if you need to disclose something to us because of your Duty of Disclosure, please attach a separate piece of paper to this application, giving full details of the additional information.

CONDITIONS OF QUOTATION

Any quotation provided by Insurers as a result of this proposal will be subject to:

- final acceptance by the Applicant(s) and then the Insurers prior to the acceptance date shown in the quotation the Applicant(s) undertaking to advise Insurers of any change in the information supplied occurring prior to the inception date of any
- the Insurers having no obligation to accept the risks if there has been any happening or circumstance, whether advised by the Applicant(s) or otherwise, arising prior to acceptance by Insurers which increases or could increase the possibility of a loss or in any way materially alters the risks as quoted. However, Insurers at their sole discretion, may decide to provide an alternative quotation. The Applicant(s) having declared all material facts likely to influence a reasonable Insurer in determining:
- - whether or not to accept the risk
 - the premium the terms, conditions, exclusions and limitations
- any Applicant(s) who acts on behalf of others being deemed to have obtained and declared all the information provided after making
- inquiry of each of them; this condition only applies to any intermediary the Applicant(s) accepting the quotation doing so on behalf of all others and accepting responsibility for payment of the premium
- the Applicant(s) undertaking that no other insurance has been purchased on this specific risk and none shall be without Insurer's written approval, in the event of such approval being given, the terms, conditions, exclusions, limitations and premium set out in any quotation may be amended by Insurers

PREVENTING OUR RIGHT OF RECOVERY

Where another person is liable to compensate you for any loss, damage or liability which is covered by this Policy but you have agreed not to seek recovery of any monies from that person, we will not cover you under this policy for that loss, damage or liability.

PRIVACY

We are committed to protecting your privacy. We only use the personal information you give us to quote on and insure your risks. We only give personal information to:

- our underwriters (and their representatives);
- our reinsurers (and their representatives); and people we appoint to assist us with any claims under your policy.
 We will not trade, sell or rent your information.

If you give us personal information about anyone else, we rely on you to notify them:

- that you will give the information to us;
- to whom we may give the information;
- the purposes for which we will use the information; and
- that they can access the information.

If the information you give us about someone else is sensitive, we rely on you to obtain their consent prior to disclosing it to us for the uses, and disclosure to the parties, we refer to in this statement. For a full statement of our Privacy Policy, ask our office for a copy.
